

Temple Gates of Prayer

38-20 Parsons Boulevard Flushing, NY 11354

(718) 359-1160 / (718) 358-7536

reservations.tgp@gmail.com

Kabbalat Shabbat and Bukharian Dinner

Join us for our 30th

Ethnic Shabbat Dinner

- an authentic and elaborate Bukharian feast highlighted by a talk given by

Manashe Khaimov

(Director of Community Engagement at Queens College Hillel)

an expert in Bukharian Jewish culture.

Friday evening - November 16, 2018

Kabbalat Shabbat 6:00 PM

Dinner 7:00 PM

Adult Member.....$35

Post-Bar/Bat Mitzvah to age 18.....$18

Adult Non-Member....$45

Pre-Bar/Bat Mitavah.....$ 5

To RSVP:

Please make sure the Temple office receives your reservation no later than November 12.

Call the Temple office or email reservations.tgp@gmail.com.

Manashe Khaimov is an Adjunct Professor in Jewish Studies, with a specialty in History and Culture of the Bukharian Jews at Queens College. He is Director of Community Engagement at Queens College Hillel.

Mr. Khaimov was born on the Silk Road, in Samarkand, Uzbekistan - where his ancestors lived for over 2000 years. A fourth generation community organizer, he is founding director of the Bukharian Jewish Union and leads The Jewish Silk Road walking tours in NYC.